WASHINGTON, D. C., October 5.— Philadelphia secured a double-header over Washington today. The first game went fifteen innings, the Philadelphians using three pitchers—Fritz, a youngster from New Orleans; Waddell, and Vickers. Charles Smith, of the locals, was hit freely, but through good support, three runs were cut off at the plate. Fritz became unsteady in the third inning, and was relieved by Waddell, who in turn was succeeded in the fourth inning by Vickers. A bad throw by F. Smith to Slipke in the fifteenth inning, in an effort to head off Hartzel at third base, lost the game for Washington. Vickers was going so strongly in the first game that Mack pitched him in the second, and he did not allow one of the locals to reach first base.

WASHINGTON & LEE TIES CAROLINIANS

Hard-Fought Game at Newport News, in Which Neither Team Can Score.

BOTH TEAMS ARE IMMATURE

Teams Evenly Matched and Sympathies of Large Crowd Well Divided.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 5.—

With 3,000 people cheering and shouting, the football game of Washington and Lee and the University of North Carolina battled to a draw on the Casino gridiron this afternoon, both sides failing to score. The game was hard fought and exciting, but the teams showed lack of practice and training, and fumbles were numerous.

In the first half Washington and Lee made a fast start and nearly scored, but Carolina took a brace and carried the ball back into Washington and Lee territory, where it remained during the rest of the half, the latter's goal being seriously threatened.

In the second half both goals were threatened. Both teams tried the forward pass several times without success, each attempt being followed by a loss by penalization. The teams averaged about 155 pounds. Carolina being slightly the heavier. Knute and Rhoads, of Washington, and Lee and Rhoads, of Washington, were the stars of the game. There were no very long runs or sensational plays. A feature of the game was the equal division of the rosters, North Carolina having about as many supporters as the Virginians. The line-up:

Mann, of North Carolina, were the stars of the game. There were no very long runs or sensational plays. A feature of the game was the equal division of the rosters, North Carolina having about as many supporters as the Virginians. The line-up:

ROANOKE COLLEGE BEATEN.

Defeated by Strong V. P. I. Team by Score of 33 to 0.

BLACKSBURG, VA., October 5.—The V. P. I. defeated Roanoke College in the first football game of the season here this afternoon by a score of 33 to 0. At the end of the first half it looked as if the visitors might have some show, the score standing 5 to 0, but in the second half the home team gained strongly. The Techs. won the forward pass successfully several times, but their opponents only tried it once and failed. The sensational feature of the game was the 60-yard run by J. P. Jones in the last 3 minutes of the game. A number of new men were given their first tryout in a match game, several subs going in for the test in the last half. Time of halves, 20 minutes. Referee, C. P.
Miles. Umpire, Baird.

SEVERAL BRILLIANT PLAYS

Crawford Makes a Seventy-Yard Run and Scores in First Five Minutes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October

5.—In her third game of the season, Virginia to-day defeated St. John's College of Maryland, 22 to 4.

The cadets put up a surprisingly strong game in the first half, and the best Virginia could do was to score a single touchdown and a field goal.
They could make little headway by carrying the ball, so resorted to a punting game, by which tactics they profited, as the Virginia backs made some miserable fumbles. One of these gave St. John's the opportunity to make their only points. After Honaker had allowed one of Hoesly's long punts to slip through his fingers, the cadets made fifteen yards on a delayed pass. A five-yard penalty brought the pigskin to Virginia's fifteen-yard line, where Bosley dropped back and booted the ball between the posts for a field goal.

Virginia scored her first touchdown five minutes after the play began. Crawford gathered in a punt, and aided by Captain Neff's splendid interference, raced seventy yards through the entire cadet team and acrossed the goal line. Near the end of the half Crawford duplicated Bosley's performance, landing a field goal from the twenty-five-yard line.

Virginia took a brace at the opening of the second half, and after receiving the ball on the kick, off-marched straight down the gridiron for a touchdown. Neff being pushed across the line. Five minutes later, with the ball on the cadet forty-yard line, Maddux gathered in a forward pass, and with a clear field placed the ball behind St. John's goal.

Score:
Virginia, Positions. St. John's.

Touchdowns—Crawford, Neff, Mad-dus. Goals from touchdowns—Crawford, (2). Goals from field—Crawford, Bosley, Referee, Cooke, Umpire, Pollard, Linesman, Peck. Time of halves, twenty and fifteen minutes.

Other Three Teams Are Tied for Second Place in Contest.

Standing of Teams.

Name.	Player.	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Steam Shovels.	C.	6	0	1.000
Morguls.	C.	6	2	.750
Decapods.	C.	6	2	.750

The Steam Shovels took three more games last week by very small margins, this time from the Morguls. This gives them a good lead in the race.
The Decapods took two out of three from the Morguls, pulling themselves out of last place and tying the Morguls and Atlantics for second.
The race so far has been a very pretty one, all teams being very evenly matched, each game having been won by small margins.
Schedule of games for Friday, October 11: Steam Shovels vs. Atlantics; Morguls vs. Decapods.

Defeated Fredericksburg College in Second Game 16 to 0.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHLAND, VA., October 5.—Richmond-Macon's second game of the season was played here this afternoon, and resulted in the score of 16 to 0 in favor of the home team against Fredericksburg College.

The features of the game were the tackling of Bush and Drewry and the splendid work of Harris, Harlan, Woodhouse (R.) and Powell, for Randolph-Macon Academy, 11; Roanoke High School, 11.

RANDOLPH-MACON WINNER.

When the game began it looked very much as if the visitors would have a walkover. Lankford, for Richmond, kicked off to Maryland, guarding the western goal. Doane, who received the kick, returned the ball about 20 yards before he was brought to earth.
The visitors then lined up and snapped the ball back, and in two scrimmages succeeded in making a first down through the line. Richmond was penalized five yards for being offside. The Marylanders then rushed the ball in five or six yards, gains rapidly, landing the ball in midfield. Cooper then circled left end for eight or ten yards, and another down placed the ball on Richmond's 45-yard line. Several short gains, followed by a 15-yard run around the end, advanced the ball to the Red and Blue 10-yard line. There the ball was fumbled, but recovered, and in two more scrimmages Mackell was pushed over for the first touchdown. The try, at yard, failed. The angle and with a contrary wind failed.

Richmond Gets in Game.

Richmond then took the west goal and Maryland kicked off to Richmond's twenty-yard line, and Atkins, who in back, carried about fifteen yards.
Richmond then essayed the forward pass, but failed, and the fifteen-yard penalty was incurred. Atkins punted to Maryland's fifty-yard line, and the wind carried the ball over the head in midfield and it rolled to the Maryland twenty-yard line. After trying the line for no gain, Maryland punted to midfield, and it was Richmond's ball.
Lankford was given the ball, and went through tackle for ten yards, but on the next scrimmage the Richmond runner, Atkins, was thrown for a loss, the Maryland backs breaking through the line. On the next line-up Louthan circled right end for a first down on the Maryland twenty-yard line. A try at left end failed, and Richmond lost the ball on downs on the Maryland fifteen-yard line. Maryland then punted to their own forty-yard line, and Atkins, who received the punt, got to the right end for a thirty-five-yard gain, landing on Maryland's five-yard line, from which Lankford carried it over on the next scrimmage. Atkins missed in the try for goal, the ball having been carried out instead of punted out. Score: Maryland, 5; Richmond, 5.

HIGHEST CLASS OF HORSES FOR SHOW

Seventh Annual Exhibition at Amphitheatre to Open Tuesday Night

FAMOUS ENTRIES IN ALL CLASSES

In Harness Classes the Vanderbilt, Watson, Stotesbury and Strauss Entries Have Won at Many Shows—Saddle Classes Are Now
Filled.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

The program for the seventh annual exhibition of the Richmond Horse Show Association, just issued from the press, is convincing of the fact that the show will be one of the best on record. While the number of entries has perhaps been exceeded in the earlier years of the show, there has never been a higher class of horses than those entered this year.

In point of hunters and jumpers and brilliant park hacks, Virginia breeders and fanciers have always had the best, and, indeed, many of the horses owned and entered by the Northern exhibitors were bred and trained in Virginia.
No State excels the Old Dominion in the production of great hunters. The largest stable of hunters and jumpers entered—that of the Westchester Farm, New York—is chiefly made up of Virginia-bred horses. And they have swept the ribbons in the Garden, at Newport, Bryn Mawr, Long Branch, and wherever shown. This is true also of the park hacks, many of the greatest ribbon winners being Virginia-bred.

Some Famous Hunters.

The Westchester Farm has such hunters as Centennial, Carnation, Tacotee, Cygnets, Onelers, Jack Frost, Ardsley, Midlothian, George E. Cain, and others. Then there is Keswick, owned by J. Weatherbee, who bought him of Julian Morris; Mr. Morris's own David Gray, Mr. Feroe's Red Raven, Castle Hill Stock Farm's Firelight, Mr.
Morris's Majesty, Mr. Jackson's King Dome, and other horses that have won blues at all the summer shows.

Mr. Lewis's Crackerjack, which is entered in all the high jumps, is a wonderful performer and will endeavor to equal or better Heatherbloom's record of seven feet ten. Crackerjack is said to be a great jumper and will certainly give a fine exhibition, if he does not equal the record.

In the saddle classes are such superb specimens as Mr. Patterson's champion dashline, his Corotoman, Mrs.
Spratley's General Forrest, Castle Hill Farm's Vivid, Mr. Morris's Sarnia, the Elsinore Farm's Artist's Model, Mr.
Doran and Crown Princess and Miss Doramus's Lady McDonald, and Mr.
Weatherbee's Irish Rose. There are many others, but these are the pick of great performers in the past.

In the harness classes are such horses as Mr. Reginald Vanderbilt's Silfied Venus and Bravo, Mr. C. W.
Watson's Lord Baltimore and My Maryland II, Mr. George Watson's Advance Guard and Empress and Empress, Mr.
Lehman Strauss's blue-ribboner, Flur-rette, Mr. Howard's Royal Regent, Mr.
Vanderbilt's Dr. Selwyn and Phoebe Watson, Mr. Watson's Ringing Bells, Mr. Pearson's Piper Fields and Red-er, Mr. Stotesbury's Wonda and Nedra, Mr. Watson's Snap Shot and many others.

Opens With High Jump.

The bugle will call the first class into the ring at 8 o'clock promptly on Tuesday night, and beginning with a large field of jumpers in the open-to-all class, nine classes will be shown.
In the jumping class, with which the show opens, Mr. Lewis's Crackerjack will make his first appearance in a Richmond ring. He has a great field to go against in Keswick, David Gray, Red Raven, Centennial, Onelers, Majesty and many others.

Among the familiar horses that will be missed are those of Mr. R. M. Tay-
